1. Co

NDP and former HJ, SA, and SS leaders, and other the Nizi party, long in a state of preparation as th

NDP, is now about to become a reality in the DDR.

2. The NDP's political committee has a special liaison section which has prepared thumb-nail sketches of all former Nazi functionaries, with particular emphasis on those accessible in West Berlin and West Germany. Until recently, the preliminary task of this liaison section consisted of circularizing letters to former HJ leaders and in holding provisional Socialistic Russia and a National Socialist Germany.

- 3. At the present time, an agent net (Vertrauensring) of about 50 of these former Nazi functionaries exists in West Berlin. NDP functionaries are preparing these persons, independently of one another, for a pro-Soviet and strongly nationalistic anti-Western propaganda campaign. This first net is being amply supplied with money and has been told to advocate any kind of nationalistic or Hitlerian form for Germany under two conditions: that the agitation is always directed against the West German government and the Western powers, and that the Soviet Union is described as the realization of the genuine German nationalistic ideas.
- 4. Within this agitation net, the former Regierungsrat of the Nazi Propaganda Ministry Körber plays an important part. Körber's special DDR contact man is Zander, head of the Hitler Jugend liaison group in the NDP.
